The document consists of a [REDACTED] one typewritten memorandum of the research and design department, Main Administration for Shipbuilding (HV Schiffbau) dated 17 April 1952.

The document covers a conference held on 16 April 1952 between Messrs. Krause and Becker of the Main Administration for Shipbuilding and Ullrich of the State Shipyard Rothensee. The topic of the conference was the construction of 65-meter river passenger boats for reparations.

The following points were discussed:

Route to be taken for delivery of boats considering the width of the boats.

Shipyard Rothensee is to draw up the blueprints assisted by the designing office in Koepenick.
